DIPLÔME DE DESIGN

MASTER'S DEGREE

The Diplôme de design (Master's degree in design) is certified by the French Ministry of Higher Education and Research and leads to the award of the "Grade de Master". It is also registered in the Registre National des Certifications Professionnelles (the French directory for vocational qualifications or RNCP) as a Level 7 Master's degree.

This five-year degree is structured around a three-year undergraduate course taught in French, combining creativity, collaboration and collective emulation, and a two-year postgraduate course focusing on the strategic dimension of design with project management and real transversality. The curriculum allows students to acquire a first international experience, and the recognition of the degree offers interesting career development prospects in the short and medium term.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSE TAUGHT IN FRENCH

Our three-year BDes programs aim to develop creativity and general culture, and to gain a solid professional culture in a design field.

DN MADE

NATIONAL DIPLOMA IN FINE ARTS, CRAFTS AND DESIGN

The DN MADE, National Diploma in Fine Arts, Crafts and Design is a state-controlled degree and leads to the award of an Undergraduate Diploma after three years of studies.

The DN MADE courses are organized around major and minor mentions and specialities and are based on a three-year curriculum. L'École de design Nantes Atlantique offers 4 DN MADE programs:

- › DN MADE Digital Design
- › DN MADE Fashion Design
- › DN MADE Space Design
- › DN MADE Product Design

The first two years are entirely taught in French, therefore students holding a high school diploma and a French level B2 may join the first year.

The 3rd year is taught in English.

INTERNATIONAL CLASS / 3RD YEAR OF DN MADE

- › Our international DN MADE programs welcome French and international students who have completed two years of design studies and wish to obtain a French Undergraduate Diploma, in the third (which is the last) year of the curriculum.

L'École de design Nantes Atlantique offers 3 international DN MADE programs taught in English:

DN MADE DIGITAL MEDIA DESIGN

- › Specifically tailored to students with an academic background in Graphic Design, Ux/UI Design or Multimedia Design.

DN MADE RETAIL & INTERIOR DESIGN

- › Specifically tailored to students with an academic background in Space Design, Interior Design or Scenography.

DN MADE INDUSTRIAL PRODUCTS

- › Specifically tailored to students with an academic background in Product Design or Industrial Design.
